

The scatterplot below shows the relationship between elevation and temperature.

1. Draw a line on the scatterplot that fits the data.

2. Assess how well the line you drew fits this data.

The line I drew was a little farther off from the dots. The data is explaining, the better it gets the lower the elevation is.