

The scatterplot below shows the relationship between elevation and temperature.

1. Draw a line on the scatterplot that fits the data.
2. Assess how well the line you drew fits this data.

I don't exactly know where it should be but it looks right and well drawn cause there are plots on top, bottom and in it.